List of Excluded Categories and Excluded Works November 2002

CLA licences do not authorise copying from some general categories of published works protected by copyright. In addition some specific individual authors and publishers exclude some or all of their works themselves.

Below is a list of Excluded Categories along with a list of Excluded Works and Excluded Artistic Works which may not be copied under the CLA licence.

Excluded Categories

- Printed music (including the words)
- Maps, charts or books of tables
- Published tests or public examination papers whether published individually or in collections
- Work books, work cards and assignment sheets
- Privately owned documents issued for tuition purposes and limited to clientele who pay fees
- Newspapers
- Internal house journals and other free publications primarily for employees (not intended for public circulation) of commercial businesses, industrial undertakings or public services
- Any work on which the copyright owner has expressly and prominently stipulated that it may not be copied under licence from CLA

The List can also be found on the CLA website at www.cla.co.uk which is frequently updated.

In the event of any conflict between any CLA Licence and this List, the Licence shall prevail.

If you wish to copy from any of the works listed here you should contact the rightsholder(s) directly for permission prior to copying.

Works published in other countries:

Photocopying

Works published outside of the following countries are excluded: United Kingdom, Australia, Canada (including Quebec), Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, South Africa, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland.

Works published in the USA by publishers not listed on the List of Participating US Publishers are excluded.

Scanning

Works published outside of the United Kingdom are excluded.

Amendments and Updates

These may be provided by CLA from time to time, and should be inserted here.
